ELIZABETHTOWN COLLEGE
SCHOOL OF GRADUATE & PROFESSIONAL STUDIES

100% ONLINE
COURSES

Elizabethtown College offers individuals with an unfinished undergraduate degree the chance to complete their degree with financial support through the ACHIEVE project.

ACHIEVE is a collaborative project led by the Lancaster County Workforce Development Board which allows Pennsylvania residents to complete their undergraduate degree on a full scholarship for up to 30 credits. Etown's School of Graduate and Professional Studies offers the following in-demand, online bachelor's programs to accommodate work, life, and school balance:

- Accounting
- Business Administration
- Health Care Administration
- Human Services (Generalist or Behavioral Addictions Counseling)

Through ACHIEVE, learners have a variety of options that meet a wide range of occupations that inspire individual selection based on strengths, skills, and personalized career path goals.

QUALIFICATIONS

You may be eligible if:

- You are a Pennsylvania resident
- You can finish your bachelor's degree by June 30, 2024 (Participants should already have estimated 80 credits completed).
- You are a former post-secondary student who exited a post-secondary training since Jan. 1, 2021 without obtaining their credential, had a 2.0 GPA (or higher) upon exit, and are currently interested, available, and capable of returning to finish your program.

Next Steps:

1. Scan the QR code below to complete the Eligibility Survey, selecting Elizabethtown College from the list of institutions.
2. You will be contacted by a representative from the Lancaster Chamber to confirm receipt of your survey responses.
3. If you are eligible, an Admissions Counselor will contact you about next steps.
